Understanding your Child's Educational Rights Serving students with special needs
under the Individuals with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation act of 1973.

Order Form

The Arizona Center for Disability Law developed a self-advocacy guide (English and Spanish) to serve as a comprehensive resource tool to provide parents with an overview of various state and federal laws, and to provide them with information and strategies on resolving special education conflicts. This updated version incorporates the final federal IDEA regulations published on August 14, 2006.

This guide can be viewed on line or down loaded by clicking on the document title. We encourage you to print this document for your reference. If you would like a hard copy of this document, please contact our office, one copy per family is free. For organizations and professionals, the charge is $ 25.00.
