Register to Vote

You must register to vote at least 29 days before an election

Online
Register online at www.servicearizona.com.

Print a form
You can print a Voter Registration form online, arizonadisabilityvote.org.

By Mail
You can request a Voter Registration form through your local County Recorder's Office.

In Person
Most social service organizations, including ACDL, have voter registration forms and can help you register.

You CANNOT Register to Vote If:

- You have been convicted of a felony and have not had your civil rights restored.
- You have been judged incompetent by a court of law. However, you can request "limited guardianship" that allows you to vote.

Voters with Disabilities

- Voters with disabilities have the right to vote in person on Election Day. All polling places and voting centers in Arizona must be accessible to voters with disabilities and have accessible voting equipment.
- Voters with disabilities are also entitled to reasonable accommodations if needed, to provide equal access to the registration and voting process.
- Special Election Boards are available to assist voters who are unable to leave their homes or the hospital to vote. Contact your County Recorder's office to request the assistance of a Special Election Board to vote.
