

Who We Are

The Arizona Center for Disability Law (ACDL) provides free legal and advocacy services to persons with disabilities in Arizona facing legal problems related to their disability.

Our Mission: ACDL is a non-profit law firm that assists Arizonans with disabilities to promote and protect their legal rights to independence, justice, and equality.

Our Vision: A society where people with disabilities enjoy full acceptance without barriers.

Areas of Focus

ACDL's areas of focus are developed annually based on input from persons with disabilities, their family members, and the Arizona community.

What Areas Can We Help You With

Abuse and Neglect	Fair Housing
Access to Health Care	Public Access
Access to Mental Health Care	Special Education
Assistive Technology	Employment
Vocational Rehabilitation	Voting Rights
Transportation

Examples of Services Provided

- Investigate complaints of abuse and neglect.
- Advocate for individuals and represent them when rights are violated.
- File lawsuits on behalf of individuals or groups to remedy systemic issues.
- Provide self-advocacy information, referrals, outreach, and training on disability rights.
- Educate lawmakers about proposed laws affecting disability rights.

Services will always be based on the availability of staff and resources.*

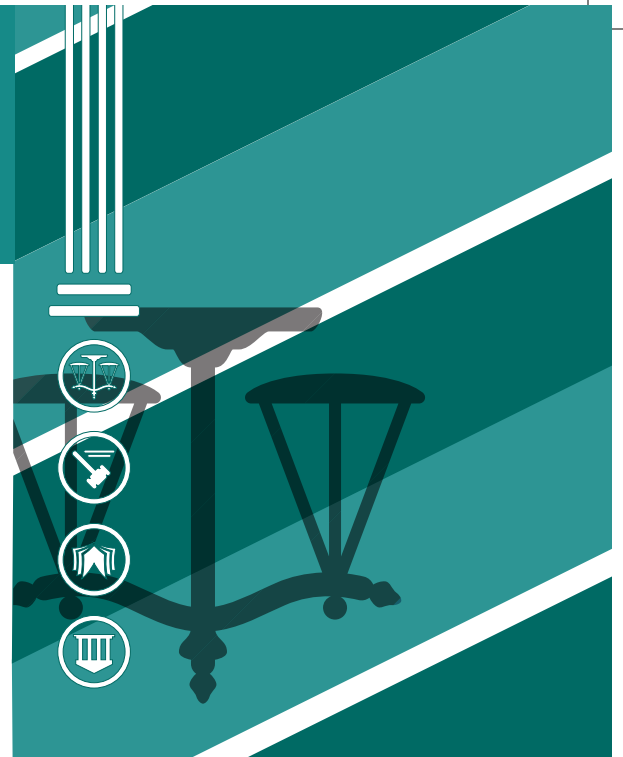

FUNDING FOR THIS PUBLICATION,

as well as ACDL programs and services, is provided by the United States Department of Health and Human Services-Administration on Developmental Disabilities and Center for Mental Health Services. Additional federal support comes from the United States Department of Education-Rehabilitation Services Administration and the Social Security Administration.
